12. The defendant DON SHIPLEY, CAROL DIANE BLAZER SHIPLEY, and EXTREME SEAL EXPERIENCE, LLC willfully and knowing have violated the homeland security law of proception on the LGBTQA as the plaintiff is registered for the council of human rights for the transgender community the defendants willfully willing and knowing there actions are acting ill manner and illegal Summary of Terrorism-Related Threat to the United States

The United States remains in a heightened threat environment. Lone offenders and small groups motivated by a range of ideological beliefs and personal grievances continue to pose a persistent and lethal threat to the Homeland. Both domestic violent extremists (DVEs) and those associated with foreign terrorist organizations continue to attempt to motivate supporters to conduct attacks in the Homeland, including through violent extremist messaging and online calls for violence. In the coming months, factors that could mobilize individuals to commit violence include their perceptions of the 2024 general election cycle and legislative or judicial decisions pertaining to sociopolitical issues. Likely targets of potential violence include US critical infrastructure, faith-based institutions, individuals or events associated with the LGBTQIA+ community, schools, racial and ethnic minorities, and government facilities and personnel, including law enforcement.

Duration

Issued: May 24, 2023 at 2:00 PM ET

Expires: November 24, 2023 at 2:00 PM ET

Additional Information

In May 2023, a now-deceased individual killed eight and injured seven others at an outlet mall in Allen, Texas. Law enforcement continues to investigate the motive behind the attack, but initial reporting suggests the attacker fixated on mass shootings and held views consistent with racially or ethnically motivated violent extremist (RMVE) and involuntary celibate violent extremist ideologies.

In March 2023, a now-deceased individual shot and killed six people at a Christian elementary school in Nashville, Tennessee. Law enforcement continues to investigate the motive behind the attack and has indicated the individual studied other mass murderers.

Also in March 2023, a RMVE driven by a belief in the superiority of the white race was arrested and charged with allegedly attempting to use an improvised incendiary device to burn down a church in Ohio that was planning to host a drag-themed event.

In February 2023, two RMVEs driven by a belief in the superiority of the white race were arrested and are now awaiting trial for plotting an attack against electrical substations in Maryland. These arrests followed a series of recent attacks against electrical infrastructure, which some DVEs have praised and leveraged to call for more attacks on critical infrastructure.

Since spring of 2022, alleged DVEs in Georgia have cited anarchist violent extremism, animal rights/environmental violent extremism, and anti-law enforcement sentiment to justify criminal activity in opposition to a planned public safety training facility in Atlanta. Criminal acts have included an alleged shooting and assaults targeting law enforcement and property damage targeting the facility, construction companies, and financial institutions for their perceived involvement with the planned facility.

Meanwhile, foreign terrorists continue to use media to call for lone offender attacks in the West, condemn US foreign policy, and attempt to expand their reach and grow global support networks. Most recently, in January 2023, an individual from Maine who was inspired by a variety of foreign terrorist content was charged with federal crimes for an attack on New York City Police Department (NYPD) officers during New Year's Eve celebrations in Times Square.

How We Are Responding

DHS works with partners across every level of government, in the private sector, and in local communities to keep Americans safe, including through the following examples of our resources and support:

DHS and the FBI continue to share timely and actionable information and intelligence with the broadest audience possible. This includes sharing information and intelligence with our partners across every level of government and in the private sector. We conduct recurring threat briefings with private sector, state, local, tribal, territorial, and campus partners, including to inform security planning efforts. DHS remains committed to working with our partners to identify and prevent all forms of targeted violence and terrorism, and to support law enforcement efforts to keep our communities safe.

DHS, in collaboration with its federal partners, launched the Prevention Resource Finder (PRF) website in March 2023. The PRF is a comprehensive web repository of federal resources available to help communities understand, mitigate, and protect themselves from targeted violence and terrorism.

The DHS Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships continues to engage a coalition of faith-based and community organizations, including members of the Faith-based Security Advisory Council (FBSAC), which DHS reconstituted in July 2022, to help build the capacity of faith-based and community organizations seeking to protect their places of worship and community spaces.

DHS's Office of Intelligence and Analysis (I&A), the FBI, and the National Counterterrorism Center in 2021 jointly updated behavioral indicators of U.S. extremist mobilization to violence. Further, I&A's National Threat Evaluation and Reporting Program continues to provide tools and resources for federal, state, local, tribal, and territorial partners on preventing terrorism and targeted violence, including online suspicious activity reporting training.

DHS's Transportation Security Administration (TSA) Intermodal Security Training and Exercise Program (I-STEP) and Exercise Information System (EXIS-Æ) work with government and private sector partners - including owners and operators of critical transportation infrastructure - to enhance security and reduce risks posed by acts of terrorism.

DHS's Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA) works with government and private sector partners - including owners and operators of critical infrastructure and public gathering places - to enhance security and mitigate risks posed by acts of terrorism and targeted violence through its network of Protective Security Advisors and resources addressing Active Shooters, School Safety, Bombing Prevention, and Soft Targets-Crowded Places.

DHS's Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships (CP3) educates and trains stakeholders on how to identify indicators of radicalization to violence, where to seek help, and the resources that are available to prevent targeted violence and terrorism. In 2022, CP3 awarded about $20 million in grants through its Targeted Violence and Terrorism Prevention (TVTP) Grant Program. To date, over 100 applicants and more than $50M in grant funds have been requested for the FY23 grant cycle.

In 2021 and 2022, DHS designated domestic violent extremism as a "National Priority Area" within its Homeland Security Grant Program (HSGP), enabling our partners to access critical funds that help prevent, prepare for, protect against, mitigate, respond to, and recover from related threats.

In 2022, DHS's Nonprofit Security Grant Program (NSGP) provided over $250 million in funding to support target hardening and other physical security enhancements to non-profit organizations at high risk of terrorist attack.

SchoolSafety.gov consolidates school safety-related resources from across the government. Through this website, the K-12 academic community can also connect with school safety officials and develop school safety plans.

13. The defendant DON SHIPLEY, CAROL DIANE BLAZER SHIPLEY, and EXTREME SEAL EXPERIENCE, LLC willfully and knowing have violated the invasion of privacy

An intrusion upon seclusion claim in Maryland must allege the following three elements: Intentional intrusion;

Into a private place, or affairs of another; and

Such intrusion would be highly offensive to a reasonable person. Secret audio or video recording of a person without consent. Placing a Person in a False Light

A claim for placing a person in a false light in Maryland must allege the following three elements:

That the defendant gave publicity to a matter concerning another that places the other before the public in a false light;

That the false light in which the other person was placed would be highly offensive to a reasonable person; and

That the actor had knowledge of or acted in reckless disregard as to the falsity of the publicized matter and the false light in which the other would be placed.

The purpose of this cause of action is to redress publication of false facts that falsely characterize a person in a highly offensive manner. The publication must be sufficiently broad such that the facts become public knowledge—it is not enough for a defendant to communicate a false fact to a single individual or even a small group of people.

Example of False Light Invasion of Privacy

A false light claim arises, for example, if a reporter publishes an article about an individual that falsely states that they have been arrested in the past or that they have children out of wedlock, when the reporter either knew the information was false or published the article with reckless disregard for the truth. Such a claim can also be asserted if such false information is posted on social media.

Invasion of privacy; trespass or intrude upon a person's solitude.

- Any person, firm, or corporation that trespasses or intrudes upon any natural person in his or her place of solitude or seclusion, if the intrusion would be highly offensive to a reasonable person, shall be liable for invasion of privacy. An invasion of privacy pursuant to this section is one consisting solely of an intentional interference with the plaintiff's interest in solitude or seclusion, either as to his or her person or private affairs or concerns, of a kind that would be highly offensive to a reasonable person. Whipps Land & Cattle Co. v. Level 3 Communications, 265 Neb. 472, 658 N.W.2d 258 (2003).

- trutner v. Dispatch Printing Co., 2 Ohio App. 3d 377 (Ohio Ct. App., Franklin County 1982).
- A person has an actionable right to be free from the invasion of privacy. Black v. Aegis Consumer Funding Group, Inc., 2001 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 2632 (S.D. Ala. Feb. 8, 2001). An actionable invasion of the right of privacy is the unwarranted appropriation or exploitation of one's personality, the publicizing of one's private affairs with which the public has no legitimate concern, or the wrongful intrusion into one's private activities in such a manner as to outrage or cause mental suffering, shame or humiliation to a person of ordinary sensibilities.
- It also includes, usually by statute, a Constitutional right to be left alone from governmental intrusion into one's private affairs, though the rights and the needs of the government to provide protection to society are balanced.
- This article shall review the basic concepts of the rights to privacy.

The right of privacy is:

- the right of a person to be free from unwarranted publicity,
- the unwarranted appropriation or exploitation of one's personality,
- the publicizing of one's private affairs with which the public has no legitimate concern, or
- the wrongful intrusion into one's private activities in such manner as to outrage or cause mental suffering, shame or humiliation to a person of ordinary sensibilities.

See Hogin v. Cottingham, 533 So. 2d 525 (Ala. 1988).

The right of privacy has two main aspects:

- the general law of privacy, which affords a tort action for damages resulting from an unlawful invasion of privacy; and
- the constitutional right of privacy which protects personal privacy against unlawful governmental invasion.

Invasion of privacy is a tort based in common law allowing an aggrieved party to bring a lawsuit against an individual who unlawfully intrudes into his/her private affairs, discloses his/her private information, publicizes him/her in a false light, or appropriates his/her name for personal gain.

Seen videos about these tyrants. I want to help get these gang banging cops off the streets. Funny how the government create a gang and calls it legal lmao. They literally act like gangs and just pick on and beat on us as citizens everywhere in the world yet they never face hardly any consequences as we would for doing the exact same shit. You would think with all the criticism going around and all the videos that they would straighten up a bit, but it only seems like they are getting worse. We need to hold these tyrants accountable for all of their actions and they need to be treated like anybody else. I think if the entire world gets behind one another, we can stop this insanity and create something better and more justified. I'm tired of seeing all these deaths in wrongful convictions and I'm sure most others are as well. Sorry you're going through this and I hope you get Justi... See more

Regardless of your feelings towards the LGBTQIA+ community, nobody wants this person showing up on their scene, bossing people around, or potentially speaking to the press on your behalf.

What even is a CERT captain and why is this person wearing a FEMA patch opposite a split flag/star of life patch? With an actual tie? I'm confused what sort of organization this even could be, and the multiple different, parallel insignias are... questionable.

Very insightful. The post has nothing to do with the LGTBQ+ community. But some are making it about that. It's about an individual who presents themselves as something they're not. This person also presents themselves as a military veteran and Navy Seal. They never served first time i've seen a post that isn't cringe (at least imho)

CERT is Community Emergency Response Team. it's a volunteer organization that supports gov't / 1st responders. there's quite a bit of training involved to become a volly and i'm pretty sure it originated with fema. looks like that person's just helping direct traffic, not cosplaying or stealing valor.

A priest, a minister, and a rabbi want to see who's best at his job. So they each go into the woods, find a bear, and attempt to convert it.

Later they get together. The priest begins: "When I found the bear, I read to him from the Catechism and sprinkled him with holy water. Next week is his First Communion."

"I found a bear by the stream," says the minister, "and preached God's holy word. The bear was so mesmerized that he let me baptize him."

They both look down at the rabbi, who is lying on a gurney in a body cast. "Looking back," he says, "maybe I shouldn't have started with the circumcision."

Yes, wife hit NY and ETA NH time 11 PM. Kids will be asleep but I get to carry them to bed! Tommorrow off to Winnepesaukee. If you are not familiar with this area. winnipesaukee is a 22 mile long lake (give or take) and is spring fed. There is a special place on the Moltonboro side where we get together with multiple families and enjoy a great weekend. Now, think about this. The people who will be there are parents of 2 West Point Cadets, 1 Annapolis Cadet and one Navy SEAL. Those parents must have done something right.

Reasons You Are a Superior Asshole From The Northeast

You've never lived south of the Mason-Dixon line and you probably never will.

When people call you a sarcastic bitch, you don't take it as an insult. You appreciate that they acknowledge that trait and love you for it.

When you give someone a compliment, it means a lot to them because you compliment sparingly. Your compliments have a lot of clout because you wouldn't say something that kind unless you genuinely meant it.

You love fall foliage but wish tourists would just shut up about it. The last thing you need is to run into another BnB-er yapping about how they just love your state this time of year.

You own at least one slightly preppy or conservative outfit because you understand how to dress in civilized society and that it's not always appropriate for people to have rips all over their clothing.

People always tell you to drink herbal tea and they need to stop. Unless they're offering you a cup of black coffee, you'd really like for them to stop talking because it's too early in the morning to hear someone yammering endlessly about lavender chamomile tea.

You prefer not to acknowledge the fact that you have emotions and do, on occasion, feel feelings.

Watching shows about a New England town supposedly like yours (Gilmore Girls) or about New York City (Friends, HIMYM, Seinfeld, every other show ever) will always be annoying.

Adorable Connecticut towns exist, but not ones that host pie-eating contests and knitting competitions every other day.

Speaking of CT, you always shit on Connecticut, but honestly aren't sure why. It's just something you learned from sarcastic Northerners that came before you. It's a perfectly nice place, but you'll probably continue to scoff at it.

You have very rigid opinions about New York City, even if you grew up right across the river.

If you're from New Jersey, you will defend it to the death while talking people's ears off about Pork Roll, WaWa, diners and so on.

Bob

11/19/2023

I watched the video and can now state with absolute certainty that we now know who ate all the pies.

Klink1960

11/19/2023
01:37:54

If you're from outside New Jersey, the only parts of Jersey that exist in your mind are the shore, AC, and Trenton, which sends shivers down your spine. Other than that, it's just the state with jug handles you'd rather not deal with.

You think every city outside the Northeast (especially not on the East Coast) is too young. They have no history, no cobblestones and no stories about Paul Revere.

If you relocated to the Northeast, you love not having to be nice or talk to people unnecessarily. Don't lie. It's pretty blissful not to converse in line at the grocery store.

If you relocated away from the Northeast, you are constantly confused as to why people think you're mean. People don't think your sarcasm is hilarious and endearing. They think it's rude and will sit you down to talk about your attitude during your first week of work.

You believe that participating in a sporting event means yelling.

Yelling at the television, the fans, the players or the heavens. You can be yelling support, but the volume needs to be a few decibels above your average tone of voice.

You're not turned off by the title of this article.

You think there's nothing more terrifying than driving down to Florida and driving past all the big crosses on the side of the road when you cross into Georgia. You like Georgia.

You respect Georgia. But like, the crosses are a lot to handle.

It's not road rage if you know you're right and the other driver's clearly wrong.

That is so damned disturbing WTF is going on this planet ? The way I describe our current situation is this. There has to be an outside source possibly ETs beaming some e type of Mind Control Brain washing onto the populations of the world. Why ?? To destroy this planet and come in an d possibly steal all our recourses that's one possibility and unfortunately it seems to be the ONLY possibility that makes sense !! Non of what is going on is normal it is some type of mind controls or brain washing yes possibly being done by ETs !! Does anyone out there agree with me ? Im very curious to know !!

RIP Charlie Stevens.

About 9pm Friday 17 November, emergency services were called to Beach Road after a pedestrian was struck by a car. The car did not stop at the scene but was pulled over by police a short distance away on Port Elliot Road at Goolwa.

The pedestrian, an 18-year-old Colonel Light Gardens man, sustained serious injuries and was airlifted to Flinders Medical Centre. Sadly, at 7.01pm this evening (Saturday 18 November) the young man passed away in hospital surrounded by family and friends.

The driver of the car, an 18-year-old Encounter Bay man, was arrested and charged with causing harm by dangerous driving, aggravated driving without due care, leaving the scene of a serious crash and failing to truly answer questions. He has been refused bail and will appear in Christies Beach Magistrates Court on Monday 20 November.

Only for CENTCOM -

The Marine Corps component of U.S. Central Command canceled its annual birthday ball, citing "unforeseen operational commitments."

Marine Corps Forces Central Command's birthday ball had been slated for Nov. 16 as a celebration of the Marine Corps' Nov. 10 birthday, according to a message by commander Maj. Gen. Chris McPhillips.

"Because of the uncertain situation, the MARCENT Commander wants to avoid a last-minute cancellation that would burden Marines, families, veterans, and members of the community with trying to recoup money from ticket sales, reservations, etc.," Marine spokesman Capt. Joe Wright told Marine Corps Times via email on Wednesday.

Wright attributed the "tough decision" to cancel the ball to "the dynamic and uncertain security environment in the CENTCOM (area of responsibility)."

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF ADAMS COUNTY, NEBRASKA

TABITHA R. ELLIOTT,

Plaintiff,

vs.

ROBERT C. ELLIOTT,

Defendant.

FILED

2018 OCT 2

DECREE

P 2: 21

ADAMS COUNTY
CLERK OF DIST. COURT

Case No. CI18-12

NOW on the 2nd day of October, 2018, this matter came on for hearing before the Honorable Terri S. Harder, District Judge, Adams County, Nebraska on the Plaintiff's Complaint for Dissolution of Marriage and the evidence relative thereto. The Plaintiff appeared personally with her counsel, Susan K. Alexander. The Defendant failed to file an answer or appear.

Hearing was held, evidence adduced, and the Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds as follows:

I.

The Plaintiff has been a resident of Nebraska for more than one year prior to the filing of the Complaint for Dissolution of Marriage.

II.

The Plaintiff was a resident of Hastings, Adams County, Nebraska at the time the Complaint for Dissolution of Marriage was filed.

III.

The Complaint for Dissolution of Marriage was filed on the 8th day of January, 2018 and the Defendant was personally served on January 18, 2018. The Court finds that more than sixty (60) days have passed since the perfection of service of process upon the Defendant and notice of the final hearing was forwarded to the Defendant at his last known address.

IV.

The Court has jurisdiction over the parties hereto and the subject matter on this action.

J00042559D14

V.

No other actions are pending for divorce, separation or dissolution of marriage either in this state or elsewhere, save and except the matter presently before this Court.

VI.

Neither party is a member of the Armed Forces of the United States of America or its allies nor has either party been ordered for induction therein.

VII.

The parties were married on the 17th day of December, 2013 in Kearney, Buffalo County, Nebraska.

VIII.

The marriage of the Plaintiff and the Defendant is irretrievably broken; reasonable efforts to reconcile the marriage have been made but said reconciliation efforts have failed; further efforts at reconciliation would be fruitless and the marriage should be dissolved.

IX.

The parties are the parents of two minor children, whose custody and welfare are affected by these proceedings, to-wit: Whitewolf Wallace Salazar Fuentes Elliott, born in 2015 and Shiloh Jean Reneesia Elliott, born in 2016. The Court finds that the Plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the permanent legal and physical care custody and control of the parties' minor children.

X.

The Defendant has committed acts which constitutes child abuse and neglect and domestic abuse towards the Plaintiff and the minor children and has been diagnosed with mental conditions which affect the children's safety. As such, the Defendant should not have parenting time or contact with the children at this time.

XI.

Due to the Defendant's incarceration and receiving Social Security Disability, the Court further finds the Defendant should pay, through the Nebraska Child Support Payment Center, P. O. Box 82600, Lincoln, Nebraska 68501, child support and maintenance for the parties' two minor children in the sum of $50.00 per month. Said payment shall commence upon the first day of October 1, 2018 and should continue to be due and payable on the first day of each month thereafter until the minor children reach the age of majority under Nebraska law, become emancipated, become self-supporting, marry or die, order of the Court.

XII.

The minor children are currently receiving health insurance coverage through the State of Nebraska and cash medical support is not appropriate at this time.

XIII.

The parties have acquired property and incurred marital debts during the marriage which should be equitably divided.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage of Tabitha R. Elliott and Robert C. Elliott, be, and hereby is, dissolved, with this Decree becoming final and operative, except for the purpose of review by appeal, without any further action of the Court, thirty (30) days after it is rendered or on the death of one of the parties to the dissolution, whichever first occurs; however, for purposes of remarriage or the continuation of health insurance coverage, the Decree becomes final and operative six (6) months after the Decree is rendered or on the death of one of the parties to the dissolution, whichever occurs first. If the Decree becomes final and operative on the death of either of the parties, the Decree shall be treated as if it became final and operative the day it was rendered.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Plaintiff, Tabitha R. Elliott is awarded the permanent legal and physical care, custody and control of the minor children.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant shall have no parenting time and is prohibited from having contact or access to the children, at this time. The Defendant may file an application with the Court to readdress visitation but the Defendant has the burden of proving parenting time or other access to the Defendant will not endanger the children or the Plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Defendant shall pay, through the Nebraska Child Support Payment Center, P.O. Box 82600, Lincoln, NE 68502-2600, the sum of $50.00 per month as child support commencing October 1, 2018 and continuing in a like manner on the 1st day of each month thereafter until the minor children, reach the age of majority under Nebraska law, become emancipated, become self-supporting, marry or die or until further order of the Court. All such payments must include name of payor, social security number of payor, county and court case number.

All child support payments shall become delinquent the day after they are due and owing. Pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. Section 42-358.02 all delinquent child support shall accrue interest at the rate of 4.136 percent per annum, which interest shall not accrue until thirty (30) days after such payments are delinquent.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant is required to furnish to the Nebraska Child Support Payment Center and the Clerk of the District Court of Adams County, Nebraska his address, telephone number, social security number, the name of his respective employer, and any other information the Court shall deem relevant until the child support judgment is paid in full. Defendant is further ordered to advise the Clerk of any changes in such information between the time of entry of this Decree and payment of the child support judgment in full. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall be punishable by contempt. In the event that Defendant fails to pay any child support payment, as such failure is certified to the Court each month by the Clerk of the District Court and/or Nebraska Child Support Payment Center in cases where Court-ordered child support is delinquent in an amount equal to the support due and payable for a one (1) month period of time, he may be required to appear in Court and show cause why such payment was not made. In the event Defendant fails to pay or appear as so ordered, a warrant shall be issued for his arrest.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that neither party shall pay spousal support to the other and Plaintiff has acknowledged that since spousal support is not awarded at this time, it cannot be awarded in the future.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties shall each pay and hold the other party harmless from the debts incurred by them in their individual names.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each party shall be awarded the personal property currently in their respective possession. The Plaintiff shall forward to Defendant's father, the Defendant's birth certificate and any other personal documents belonging to the Defendant that she may have.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Plaintiff's maiden name of Tabitha R. Holdeman is restored to her.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each party shall sign and execute such deeds, titles and instruments of transfer as shall be necessary to accomplish the division of property as provided for herein and, in the event that either party shall neglect or refuse to execute such deeds, titles and instruments of transfer, this Decree shall serve as such deed, assignment and transfer in and of its own effect.

Complete record is waived.

DATED this 2 day of October, 2018.
